Compliance with the provisions of this paragraph shall relieve the registered agent from any further obligation to the corporation for service of the process, notice or demand, but the agent's failure to comply with the provisions of this paragraph shall in no way affect the validity of the service of the process, notice or demand.

7. Immunity from liability of registered agent. The registered agent (and any affiliate of any entity acting as registered agent) and any agent, shareholder, member, director, officer, and employee of either such registered agent or such affiliate shall not directly or indirectly be liable for or subject to any liability of any kind, including legal claims, causes of action, suits, debts, counterclaims, sums of money, losses, demands, costs and expenses with respect to their acts or failures to act in the good faith conduct of the registered agent's duties or because of the acts of the corporation, registered business company, limited liability company, trust, partnership, limited partnership, foreign maritime entity, foundation and other business associations, or other entity for which the registered agent serves as registered agent.”.

1. Power to make bylaws. The original or other bylaws of a corporation may be adopted, amended or repealed by the incorporators, by the initial directors if they were named in the articles of incorporation, or, before a corporation has received any payment for any of its shares, by its board of directors. After a corporation has received any payment for any of its shares, the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws shall be in the shareholders entitled to vote, or, in the case of a non-share corporation, in its members entitled to vote; provided, however, any corporation may, in its articles of incorporation, confer the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws upon the directors or, in the case of a non-share corporation, upon its governing body by whatever name designated. The fact that such power has been so conferred upon the directors or governing body, as the case may be, shall not divest the shareholders or members of the power, nor limit their power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws.

2. Scope. The bylaws may contain any provision, not inconsistent with law or with the articles of incorporation, relating to the business of the corporation, the conduct of its affairs, and its rights or powers or the rights or powers of its shareholders, members, directors, officers or employees.

§4.10. Emergency Bylaws.

1. Emergency bylaws and other powers in emergency. The board of directors of any corporation may adopt emergency bylaws, subject to repeal or change by action of the shareholders, which shall notwithstanding any different provision elsewhere in this Chapter or in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, be operative during any emergency resulting from an attack on the Republic of Liberia or on a locality in which the corporation conducts its business or customarily holds meetings of its board of directors or its shareholders, or during any nuclear or atomic disaster, or during the existence of any catastrophe, or other similar emergency condition, as a result of which a quorum of the board of directors or a standing committee thereof cannot readily be convened for action. The emergency bylaws may make any provision that may be practical and necessary for the circumstances of the emergency, including provisions that:

- (a) A meeting of the board of directors or a committee thereof may be called by any officer or director in such manner and under such conditions as shall be prescribed in the emergency bylaws;
- (b) The director or directors in attendance at the meeting, or any greater number fixed by the emergency bylaws, shall constitute a quorum; and
- (c) The officers or other persons designated on a list approved by the board of directors before the emergency, all in such order of priority and subject to such conditions and for such period of time (not longer than reasonably necessary after the termination of the emergency) as may be provided in the emergency bylaws or in the resolution approving the list, shall, to the extent required to provide a quorum at any meeting of the board of directors, be deemed directors for such meeting.

2. Powers of directors. The board of directors, either before or during any such emergency, may:

- (a) Provide, and from time to time modify, lines of succession in the event that during such emergency any or all officers or agents of the corporation shall for any reason be rendered incapable of discharging their duties;
- (b) Effective in the emergency, change the head office or designate several alternative head offices or regional offices, or authorize the officers so to do.

3. Liability of Directors. No officer, director or employee acting in accordance with any emergency bylaws shall be liable except for willful misconduct.

4. Normal bylaws. To the extent not inconsistent with any emergency bylaws so adopted, the bylaws of the corporation shall remain in effect during any emergency and upon its termination the emergency bylaws shall cease to be operative.

5. Notices. Unless otherwise provided in emergency bylaws, notice of any meeting of the board of directors during such an emergency may be given only to such of the directors as it may be feasible to reach at the time and by such means as may be feasible at the time, including publication or radio.

6. Quorum. To the extent required to constitute a quorum at any meeting of the board of directors during such an emergency, the officers of the corporation who are present shall, unless otherwise provided in emergency bylaws, be deemed, in order of rank and within the same rank in order of seniority, directors for such meeting.

7. Non-exclusive. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed exclusive of any other provisions for emergency powers consistent with other sections of this Chapter which have been or may be adopted by corporations created under this Chapter.”.

Section 19. That from and immediately upon the passage of this Act, Title 5, Part I, Chapter 5, section 5.1 is hereby amended, as herein below recited, word for word, to read as follows:

“1. Power to issue. Every corporation except a non-share corporation shall have power to issue the number of shares stated in its articles of incorporation. Such shares may be of one or more classes or one or more series within any class thereof, any or all of which classes may be of shares with par value or shares without par value, and may be registered or bearer shares, with such voting powers, full or limited, or without voting powers and in such series and with such designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or special rights and qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereon as shall be stated in the articles of incorporation or in the resolution providing for the issue of such shares adopted by the board of directors pursuant to authority expressly vested in it by the provisions of the articles of incorporation.

2. Convertible shares. The articles of incorporation or the resolution providing for the issue of shares adopted by the board of directors may provide that shares of any class of shares or of any series of shares within any class thereof shall be convertible into the shares of one or more other classes of shares or series except into shares of a class or series having rights or preferences as to dividends or distribution of assets upon liquidation which are prior or superior in rank to those of the shares being converted.

3. Redeemable shares. A corporation may provide in its articles of incorporation for one or more classes or series of shares which are redeemable, in whole or in part, at the option of the corporation at such price or prices, within such period and under such conditions as are stated in the articles of incorporation or in the resolution providing for the issue of such shares adopted by the board of directors pursuant to authority expressly vested in it by the provisions of the articles of incorporation.

4. Fractional shares. A corporation may issue fractional shares.

5. Shares provided for by resolution of board. Before any corporation shall issue any shares of any class or of any series of any class of which the voting powers, designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other rights, if any, or the qualifications, limitations, or restrictions thereof, if any, have not been set forth in the articles of incorporation, but are provided for in a resolution adopted by the board of directors pursuant to authority expressly vested in it by the provisions of the articles of incorporation, a statement setting forth a copy of such resolution and the number of shares of the class or series to be issued shall be executed, acknowledged, and filed in accordance with section 1.4. Upon the filing of such statement, the resolution establishing and designating the class or series and fixing the relative rights and preferences thereof shall become effective and shall constitute an amendment of the articles of incorporation.”.

Section 20. That from and immediately upon the passage of this Act, Title 5, Part I, Chapter 5, section 5.2 is hereby amended, as herein below recited, word for word, to read as follows:

“1. In general. A restriction on the transfer of shares of a corporation may be imposed either by the articles of incorporation or by the bylaws or by an agreement among any number of shareholders or among such holders and the corporation. No restriction so imposed shall be binding with respect to shares issued prior to the adoption of the restriction unless the holders of the shares are parties to an agreement or voted in favor of the restriction. Any restriction which absolutely prohibits the transfer of shares shall be null.

2. Restrictions. Without limiting the provisions of subsection 1, restrictions on the transfer of shares which are permissible include those which:

- (a) Obligate the holder of the restricted shares to offer to the corporation or to any other holders of securities of the corporation or to any person or to any combination of the foregoing, a prior opportunity, to be exercised within a reasonable time, to acquire the restricted shares;
- (b) Obligate the corporation or any holder of shares of the corporation or any other person or any combination of the foregoing, to purchase at a specified price the shares which are the subject of an agreement respecting the purchase and sale of the restricted securities;

- (c) Require the corporation or the holders of the shares to consent to any proposed transfer of the restricted shares or to approve the proposed transferee of the restricted shares;
- (d) Prohibit the transfer of the restricted shares to designated persons or classes of persons, and such designation is not manifestly unreasonable; or
- (e) Impose any other restriction on the transfer of the shares for the purpose of maintaining an advantage presently enjoyed by the corporation or of accomplishing the business purpose of the corporation.

3. Annotation. Any transfer restriction adopted under this section shall be conspicuously noted on the face or the back of the stock certificate.”

Section 21. That from and immediately upon the passage of this Act, Title 5, Part I, Chapter 5, section 5.3 is hereby amended, as herein below recited, word for word, to read as follows:

“1. Irrevocability of subscription for six months. A subscription for shares of a corporation to be organized shall be irrevocable for a period of six months from its date unless otherwise provided by the terms of the subscription agreement or unless all of the subscribers consent to the revocation of such subscription.

2. Writing required. A subscription, whether made before or after the formation of a corporation, shall not be enforceable unless in writing and signed by the subscriber.

3. Time of payment calls. Unless otherwise provided in the subscription agreement, subscriptions for shares, whether made before or after the organization of a corporation, shall be paid in full at such time, or in such installments and at such times, as shall be determined by the board of directors. Any call made by the board of directors for payment on subscriptions shall be uniform as to all shares of the class or as to all shares of the same series, as the case may be.

4. Default in payment; penalties. In case of default in the payment of any installment or call when such payment is due, the corporation may proceed to collect the amount due in the same manner as any debt due the corporation. The bylaws may prescribe a penalty for failure to pay installments or calls that may become due, but no penalty resulting in a forfeiture of a subscription, or of the amounts paid thereon, shall be declared as against any subscriber unless the amount due thereon shall remain unpaid for a period of thirty days after written demand has been made therefor. If mailed, such written demand shall be deemed to be made when sent by registered mail addressed to the subscriber at his last post office address known to the corporation. In the event of the sale of any shares by reason of any forfeiture, the excess of proceeds realized over the amount due and unpaid on such shares shall be paid to the delinquent subscriber or to his legal representative. If no prospective purchaser offers a cash price sufficient to pay the full balance owed by the delinquent subscriber plus the expenses incidental to such sale, the shares subscribed for shall be cancelled and restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares and all previous payments thereon shall be forfeited to the corporation and transferred to surplus.

5. Transfer of subscriptions. Subscriptions for shares are transferable unless otherwise provided in a subscription agreement.”.

Section 22. That from and immediately upon the passage of this Act, Title 5, Part I, Chapter 5, section 5.4 is hereby amended, as herein below recited, word for word, to read as follows:

“1. Quality of consideration. Consideration for the issue of shares shall consist of money or other property, tangible or intangible, or labor or services actually received by or performed for the corporation or for its benefit or in its formation or reorganization, or a combination thereof in such manner or such form as the board of directors shall determine. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the board or shareholders, as the case may be, as to the value of the consideration received for shares shall be conclusive.

2. Amount of consideration for shares with par value. Shares with par value may be issued for such consideration, not less than the par value thereof, as is fixed from time to time by the board.

3. Amount of consideration for shares without par value. Shares without par value may be issued for such consideration as is fixed from time to time by the board unless the articles of incorporation reserve to the shareholders the right to fix the consideration. If such right is reserved as to any shares, a vote of the shareholders shall either fix the consideration to be received for the shares or authorize the board to fix such consideration.

4. Disposition of treasury shares. Treasury shares may be disposed of by a corporation on such terms and conditions as are fixed from time to time by the board.

5. Consideration for share dividends. That part of the surplus of a corporation which is transferred to stated capital upon the issuance of shares as a share dividend shall be deemed to be consideration for the issuance of such shares.”.

Section 23. That from and immediately upon the passage of this Act, Title 5, Part I, Chapter 5, section 5.5 is hereby amended, as herein below recited, word for word, to read as follows:

“1. Shares fully paid and non-assessable. Shares issued shall be deemed to be fully paid and non-assessable shares, if:

- (a) The entire amount of such consideration has been received by the corporation in the form determined in accordance with section 5.4; or
- (b) Not less than the amount of the consideration determined to be capital pursuant to section 5.7 has been received by the corporation in such form and the corporation has received a binding obligation of the subscriber or purchaser to pay the balance of the subscription or purchase price: Provided, however, nothing contained herein shall prevent the board of directors from issuing partly paid shares under section 5.5.2.

2. Partly paid shares. Any corporation may issue the whole or any part of its shares as partly paid and subject to call for the remainder of the consideration to be paid therefor. Upon the face or back of each certificate issued to represent any such partly paid shares, or upon the books and records of the corporation in the case of uncertificated partly paid shares, the total amount of the consideration to be paid therefor and the amount paid thereon shall be stated. Upon the declaration of any dividend on fully paid shares, the corporation shall declare a dividend upon partly paid shares of the same class, but only upon the basis of the percentage of the consideration actually paid thereon.

3. Liability of shareholder or subscriber for shares not paid in full. When the whole of the consideration payable for shares of a corporation has not been paid in, and the assets shall be insufficient to satisfy the claims of its creditors, each holder of, or subscriber for, such shares shall be bound to pay on each share held or subscribed for by such holder or subscriber the sum necessary to complete the amount of the unpaid balance of the consideration for which such shares were issued, or are to be issued, by the corporation. Any person becoming an assignee or transferee of shares, or of a subscription for shares, in good faith and without knowledge or notice that the full consideration therefor has not been paid, shall not be personally liable for any unpaid portion of such consideration, but the transferor shall remain liable therefor. No person holding shares in any corporation as collateral security shall be personally liable as a shareholder, but the person pledging such shares shall be considered the holder thereof and shall be so liable. No executor, administrator, guardian, trustee or other fiduciary shall be personally liable as a shareholder, but the estate or funds held by such executor, administrator, guardian, trustee or other fiduciary in such fiduciary capacity shall be liable. No liability under this section shall be asserted more than six years after the issuance of the shares or after the date of the subscription upon which the assessment is sought.

4. Payment for shares not paid in full. The capital of a corporation shall be paid for in such amounts and at such times as the directors may require. The directors may, from time to time, demand payment, in respect of each share not fully paid, of such sum of money as the necessities of the business may, in the judgment of the board of directors, require, not exceeding in the whole the balance remaining unpaid on partly paid shares, and such sum so demanded shall be paid to the corporation at such times and by such installments as the directors shall direct. The directors shall give written notice of the time and place of such payments, which notice shall be given at least thirty days before the time for such payment, to each holder of, or subscriber for, shares which are not fully paid, at such holder's or subscriber's last known address.

5. Failure to pay for shares; remedies. When any shareholder fails to pay any installment or call upon such shareholder's shares which may have been properly demanded by the directors, at the time when such payment is due, the directors may collect the amount of any such installment or call, or any balance thereof, remaining unpaid, from the shareholder by an action at law, or they shall sell such part of the shares of such delinquent shareholder as will pay all demands then due from such shareholder with interest and all incidental expenses, and shall transfer the shares so sold to the purchaser, who shall be entitled to a certificate therefor. Notice of the sale and of the sum due on each share shall be sent by the corporation to such delinquent shareholder, at such shareholder's last known address, at least twenty days before such sale. If no purchaser can be had to pay the amount due on the shareholding, and if the amount is not collected by an action at law, the shareholding and the amount previously paid in by the delinquent shareholder on the shares shall be forfeited to the corporation.”.

Section 24. That from and immediately upon the passage of this Act, Title 5, Part I, Chapter 5, section 5.8 is hereby amended, as herein below recited, word for word, to read as follows:

“1. Signature and seal. Subject to section 5.8.5, the shares of a corporation shall be represented by certificates signed by two officers of the corporation, unless there is only one person appointed as an officer or the same person is appointed to be each officer of the corporation, in which case by that one person, and where the officer is not a natural person the instruments shall be signed by the person or persons who are the authorized signatories of that legal person, and may be sealed with the seal of the corporation, if any, or a facsimile thereof. The signatures of the officers upon a certificate may be facsimiles if the certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or registered by a registrar other than the corporation itself or its employees. In case any officer who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer at the date of issue.

2. Registered or bearer shares. Shares may be issued either in registered form or in bearer form provided that the articles of incorporation prescribe the manner in which any required notice is to be given to shareholders of bearer shares in conformity with section 1.9. The transfer of bearer shares shall be by delivery of the certificates. Except in the case of a corporation formed prior to 1 April 2002, in which case only where the articles of incorporation so provided, on request of a shareholder of a corporation which has both bearer shares and registered shares his bearer shares shall be exchanged for registered shares, or his registered shares exchanged for bearer shares, except where the articles of incorporation provide otherwise.

3. Statement regarding class and series. Each certificate representing shares issued by a corporation which is authorized to issue shares of more than one class shall set forth upon the face or back of the certificate, or shall state that the corporation will furnish to any shareholder upon request and without charge, a full statement of the designation, relative rights, preferences and limitations of the shares of each class authorized to be issued, and, if the corporation is authorized to issue any class of preferred shares in series, the designation, relative rights, preferences and limitations of each such series, so far as the same have been fixed, and the authority of the board to designate and fix the relative rights, preferences and limitations of other series.

4. Other statements on certificate. Each certificate representing shares shall when issued state upon the face thereof:

- (a) That the corporation is formed under the laws of Liberia;
- (b) The name of the person or persons to whom issued, if a registered share;
- (c) The number and class of shares, and the designation of the series, if any, which such certificate represents;
- (d) The par value of each share represented by such certificate, or a statement that the shares are without par value; and
- (e) If the share does not entitle the holder to vote, that it is non-voting, or if the right to vote exists only under certain circumstances, that the right to vote is limited.

5. Uncertificated shares. The board of directors of a corporation may provide by resolution or resolutions that some or all of any or all classes or series of its shares shall be uncertificated shares, that is to say shares which:

- (a) Are not represented by an instrument;
- (b) The transfer of which is registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the corporation issuing the shares;
- (c) Are of a type commonly dealt in upon securities exchanges or markets;

and:

- (d) Any such resolution shall not apply to shares represented by a certificate until such certificate is surrendered to the corporation;
- (e) Notwithstanding the adoption of such a resolution by the board of directors:
 - (i) Every holder of shares represented by certificates; and
 - (ii) Upon request, every holder of uncertificated shares, shall be entitled to have a certificate, signed by, or in the name of, the corporation by two officers of the corporation, unless there is only one person appointed as an officer or the same person is appointed to be each officer of the corporation, in which case by that one person, and where the officer is not a natural person the instruments shall be signed by the person or persons who are the authorized signatories of that legal person, representing the number of shares registered in certificate form.

6. Uncertificated shares and lost, stolen or destroyed share certificates; issuance of certificate or new certificate. Where the directors of a corporation are satisfied as to the facts alleged, a corporation may issue a certificate in respect of uncertificated shares or a new certificate in place of any certificate theretofore issued by it, alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, and, in respect of a new certificate, the corporation may require the owner of the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or such owner's legal representative, to give the corporation a bond sufficient to indemnify it against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of such new certificate.

7. Judicial proceedings to compel issuance of certificate in respect of shares previously uncertificated or a new certificate in replacement of certificate lost, stolen or destroyed. If a corporation refuses to issue:

- (a) A certificate in respect of shares previously uncertificated; or
- (b) A new share certificate in place of a certificate theretofore issued by it, or by any corporation of which it is the lawful successor, alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the owner of the shares previously uncertificated, or of the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or such owner's legal representative, may apply to the court for an order requiring the corporation to show cause why it should not issue a certificate in respect of shares previously uncertificated or a new certificate in replacement of the certificate lost, stolen or destroyed. Such application shall be by way of a complaint, which shall state:

- (c) The name of the corporation; and
- (d) In the case of uncertificated shares, the number of shares represented thereby and to whom issued; or
- (e) In the case of a certificate lost, stolen or damaged:
 - (i) The number and date of the certificate, if known or ascertainable by the plaintiff;
 - (ii) The number of shares represented thereby and to whom issued; and
 - (iii) A statement of the circumstances attending such loss, theft or destruction, and thereupon the court shall make an order requiring the corporation to show cause at a time and place therein designated, why it should not issue a certificate in respect of the shares previously uncertificated, or a new certificate in replacement of the one described in the complaint, as the case may be. A copy of the complaint and order shall be served upon the corporation at least five days before the time designated in the order. If, upon hearing the matter, the court is satisfied that the plaintiff is the lawful owner of the number of shares, or any part thereof, described in the complaint, and that the shares were uncertificated or that the certificate therefor has been lost, stolen or destroyed, and no sufficient cause has been shown why a certificate in respect of the shares previously uncertificated or a new certificate in replacement for the one lost, stolen or destroyed should not be issued, it shall make an order requiring the corporation to issue and deliver to the plaintiff a certificate in respect of the shares previously uncertificated or a new certificate in replacement for the one lost, stolen or destroyed. In its order the court shall direct that, prior to the issuance and delivery to the plaintiff of such certificate in respect of shares previously uncertificated or a new certificate in replacement of the one lost, stolen or damaged, the plaintiff give the corporation a bond in such form and with such security as to the court appears sufficient to indemnify the corporation against any claim that may be made against it on account of the issuance of such certificate in respect of shares previously uncertificated or the alleged loss, theft or destruction of a certificate or the issuance of a new certificate in replacement of the certificate lost, stolen or damaged. No corporation which has issued a certificate pursuant to an order of the court entered hereunder shall be liable in an amount in excess of the amount specified in such bond.”.

2. Shares not required to be cancelled. Any shares reacquired by the corporation and not required to be cancelled may be either retained as treasury shares or cancelled by the board at the time of reacquisition or at any time thereafter.

3. Disposition of treasury shares. Neither the retention of reacquired shares as treasury shares, nor their subsequent distribution to shareholders or disposition for a consideration shall change the stated capital. Treasury shares may be disposed of for such consideration as the directors may fix. When treasury shares are disposed of for a consideration, the surplus shall be increased by the full amount of the consideration received.

4. Reduction of stated capital on reacquisition of shares. When reacquired shares other than converted shares are cancelled, the stated capital of the corporation shall be reduced by the amount of stated capital then represented by the shares so cancelled. The amount by which stated capital has been reduced by cancellation of reacquired shares during a stated period of time shall be disclosed in the next financial statement covering such period that is furnished by the corporation to all its shareholders, or, if practicable, in the first notice of dividend or share distribution that is furnished to the holders of each class or series of its shares between the end of the period and the next such financial statement, and in any event to all its shareholders within six months of the date of the reduction of capital.

5. Cancelled shares; eliminated shares. Shares cancelled under this section shall be restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares, except that if the articles of incorporation prohibit the reissue of any shares required or permitted to be cancelled under this section, the board shall approve and deliver to the Registrar or the Deputy Registrar articles of amendment under section 9.5 eliminating such shares from the number of authorized shares.”.

If not otherwise fixed under this paragraph, the number of directors shall be one.

2. Increase or decrease. The number of directors may be increased or decreased by amendment of the bylaws, by the shareholders, or by action of the board under the specific provisions of a bylaw, subject to the following limitations:

“1. Quorum defined. Unless a greater proportion is required by the articles of incorporation, a majority of the entire board, present in person or by proxy at a meeting duly assembled, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business or of any specified item of business, except that the articles of incorporation or the bylaws may fix the quorum at less than a majority of the entire board.

2. Vote at meeting as action by board. The vote of the majority of the directors present in person or by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board unless the articles of incorporation require the vote of a greater number.

3. Proxy and attorney. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, any director may be represented and vote at a meeting or consent to an action without a meeting by proxy or proxies given to another person, whether or not a director, appointed by instrument in writing, howsoever communicated. A director may attend a meeting, or consent to an action without a meeting, by his attorney.

4. Action without meeting. Unless otherwise restricted by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the board of directors, or of any committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if all members of the board or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board or committee.

5. Participation by conference telephone, etc.. Unless restricted by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, members of the board or any committee thereof may participate in a meeting of such board or committee by means of conference telephone or similar communication equipment which permits all persons participating in the meeting to simultaneously communicate with each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this paragraph shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Except as may be otherwise provided by the articles of incorporation, this section shall apply to such a corporation, and when so applied, all references to the board of directors, to members thereof, and to shareholders shall be deemed to refer to the governing body of the corporation, the members thereof and the members of the corporation, respectively.”.

The loan, guaranty or other assistance may be with or without interest, and may be unsecured, or secured in such manner as the board of directors shall approve, including, without limitation, a pledge of shares of the corporation. “1. Actions not by or in right of the corporation. A corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of no contest, or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

2. Actions by or in right of the corporation. A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or nor opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

3. When director or officer successful. To the extent that a director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in paragraphs 1 or 2, or in the defense of a claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

4. Payment of expenses in advance. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the board of directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this section.

5. Insurance. A corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in such capacity whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this section.

6. Other rights of indemnification unaffected. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

7. Continuation of indemnification. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this section shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administration of such persons.”.

“Directors and officers shall discharge the duties of their respective positions in good faith and with that degree of diligence, care and skill which ordinarily prudent men would exercise under similar circumstances in like positions. A member of the board of directors, or a member of any committee designated by the board of directors, shall, in the performance of such member's duties, be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the corporation and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the corporation by any of the corporation's officers or employees, or committees of the board of directors, or by any other person as to matters the member reasonably believes are within such other person's professional or expert competence and who has been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the corporation.”.

Section 35. That from and immediately upon the passage of this Act, Title 5, Part I, Chapter 6, section 6.15 is hereby amended, as herein below recited, word for word, to read as follows:

“1. Appointment. Every corporation shall have such officers with such titles and duties as shall be stated in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws or in a resolution of the board of directors which is not inconsistent with the bylaws and as may be necessary to enable it to sign instruments and share certificates which comply with provisions of this Act in respect of the signing of instruments and certificates. One of the officers shall have the duty to record the proceedings of the meetings of the shareholders and directors in a book to be kept for that purpose and otherwise acting as the secretary of the corporation.

2. Election by shareholders. The articles of incorporation or the bylaws may provide that all officers or that specified officers shall be elected by the shareholders instead of by the board.

3. Terms. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, all officers shall be elected or appointed to hold office until the meeting of the board following the next annual meeting of shareholders, or in the case of officers elected by the shareholders, until the next annual meeting of the shareholders.

4. Tenure. Each officer shall hold office for the term for which he is elected or appointed, and until his successor has been elected or appointed and qualified or until he resigns.

5. Same person for more than one office. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws otherwise provide.

6. Security for performance. The board may require any officer to give security for the faithful performance of his duties. The corporation may secure the fidelity of any or all of its officers or agents by bond or otherwise.

7. Duties. All officers as between themselves and the corporation shall have such authority and perform such duties with respect to the management of the corporation as may be provided in the bylaws or, to the extent not so provided, by the board.

8. Status, nationality and residence. Unless otherwise required by any statutory or administrative provision or under the terms of any license to conduct business or by the articles of incorporation, officers, may be persons, individual or legal, of any nationality and need not be residents of Liberia.

9. Failure to elect or appoint officers not to affect status of corporation. A failure to elect or appoint officers shall not dissolve or otherwise affect the corporation.”.

Section 36. That from and immediately upon the passage of this Act, Title 5, Part I, Chapter 7, section 7.1 is hereby amended, as herein below recited, word for word, to read as follows:

“1. Place of meeting. Meetings of shareholders may be held at such place, either within or without Liberia, as may be designated in the bylaws.

2. Time of meeting; business. Unless directors are elected by written consent in lieu of an annual meeting as permitted by this paragraph, an annual meeting of shareholders shall be held for the election of directors on a date and at a time designated by or in the manner provided in the bylaws. Shareholders may, unless the articles of incorporation otherwise provide, act by written consent to elect directors: Provided, however, that, if such consent is less than unanimous, such action by written consent may be in lieu of holding an annual meeting only if all of the directorships to which directors could be elected at an annual meeting held at the effective time of such action are vacant and are filled by such action. Any other proper business may be transacted at the annual meeting.

3. Failure to hold meeting. A failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time or to elect a sufficient number of directors to conduct the business of the corporation shall not affect otherwise valid corporate acts or cause a dissolution of the corporation except as may be otherwise specifically provided in this Act. If the annual meeting for election of directors is not held on the date designated therefor, the directors shall cause the meeting to be held as soon thereafter as convenient. If there is a failure to hold the annual meeting for a period of ninety days after the date designated therefor, or if no date has been designated for a period of thirteen months after the organization of the corporation or after its last annual meeting, holders of not less than ten percent of the shares entitled to vote in an election of directors may, in writing, demand the call of a special meeting specifying the time thereof, which shall not be less than two nor more than three months from the date of such call. An officer fulfilling the role of secretary of the corporation upon receiving the written demand shall promptly give notice of such meeting, or if he fails to do so within five business days thereafter, any shareholder signing such demand may give such notice. The shares of the corporation represented at such a meeting, either in person or by proxy or attorney, and entitled to vote thereat, shall constitute a quorum, notwithstanding any provision of the articles of incorporation or bylaws to the contrary.

4. Special meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the board of directors or by such person or persons as may be authorized by the articles of incorporation or by the bylaws. At any such special meeting only such business as is related to the purpose or purposes set forth in the notice required by section 7.2 shall be transacted.

5. Ballots. The articles of incorporation or the bylaws may provide that elections of directors shall be by written ballot.”.

“1. Requirement. Whenever under the provisions of this Title shareholders are required or permitted to take any action at a meeting, written notice shall state the place, date and hour of the meeting and, unless it is the annual meeting, indicate that it is being issued by or at the direction of the person or persons calling the meeting. Notice of a special meeting shall also state the purpose for which the meeting is called.

2. Manner of giving notice to registered shareholders. A copy of the notice of any meeting shall be given personally or sent by mail, telegraph, cablegram, telex or teleprinter or other electronic means of communication, not less than fifteen nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, to each registered shareholder entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice is given when deposited in the mail, directed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the record of shareholders, or, if he shall have filed with the person fulfilling the role of secretary of the corporation a written request that notices to him be mailed to some other address, then directed to him at such other address.

3. Manner of giving notice to bearer shareholders. Notice of any meeting shall be given to shareholders of bearer shares in accordance with the provisions of section 1.9. The notice shall include a statement of the conditions under which shareholders may attend the meeting and exercise the right to vote.

4. Adjournments. When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, it shall not be necessary, unless the meeting was adjourned for lack of a quorum or unless the bylaws require otherwise, to give any notice of the adjourned meeting if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, and at the adjourned meeting any business may be transacted that might have been transacted on the original date of the meeting. However, if after the adjournment the board fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each shareholder of record on the new record date entitled to notice under paragraph 1.”.

Section 38. That from and immediately upon the passage of this Act, Title 5, Part I, Chapter 7, section 7.4 is hereby amended, as herein below recited, word for word, to read as follows:

“1. Action without meeting of shareholders. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or in the bylaws, any action required by this Title to be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders of a corporation, or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of such shareholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and shall be delivered to the corporation by delivery to an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of shareholders are recorded.

2. Action without meeting of members. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or in the bylaws, any action required by this Title to be taken at a meeting of the members of a non-share corporation, or any action which may be taken at any meeting of the members of a non-share corporation, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by members having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all members having a right to vote thereon were present and voted and shall be delivered to the corporation by delivery to an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of members are recorded.

3. Action without meeting of shareholders or members. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or in the bylaws, any action required by this Title to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders and members of a hybrid corporation, or any action which may be taken at any meeting of the shareholders and members of a hybrid corporation, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by shareholders and members having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shareholders and members having a right to vote thereon were present and voted, and shall be delivered to the corporation by delivery to an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of shareholders or members are recorded.

4. Form and timing of consent. For the purposes of this section every written consent shall bear the date of signature of each shareholder or member who signs the consent, and no written consent shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to therein unless, within sixty days of the earliest dated consent delivered in the manner required by this section to the corporation, written consents signed by a sufficient number of holders or members to take action are delivered to the corporation by delivery to an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of shareholders or members are recorded.

5. Notice and certificates. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those shareholders or members who have not consented in writing and who, if the action had been taken at a meeting, would have been entitled to notice of the meeting if the record date for such meeting had been the date that written consents signed by a sufficient number of shareholders or members to take the action were delivered to the corporation as provided in section 7.5. In the event that the action which is consented to is such as would have required the filing of a certificate under any other section of this Title, if such action had been voted on by shareholders or by members at a meeting thereof, the certificate filed under such other section shall state, in lieu of any statement required by such section concerning any vote of shareholders or members, that written consent has been given in accordance with this section.

If no record date has been fixed by the board of directors, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, when no prior action by the board of directors is required by this Title, shall be the first date on which a signed written consent setting forth the action taken or proposed to be taken is delivered to the corporation by delivery to an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of shareholders are recorded. proxy shall be revocable at the pleasure of the shareholder executing it, except as otherwise provided in this section.

3. Revocation by death or incompetence of shareholder. The authority of the holder of a proxy to act shall not be revoked by the death or the incompetence of the shareholder who executed the proxy unless, before the authority is exercised, written notice of an adjudication of such death or such incompetence is received by the corporate officer responsible for maintaining the list of shareholders.

4. Issue of proxy by record holder. Except when other provisions shall have been made by written agreement between the parties, the record holder of shares which are held by a pledgee as security or which belong to another, upon demand therefor and payment of necessary expenses thereof, shall issue to the pledgee or to such owner of such shares a proxy to vote or take other action thereon.

5. Sale of vote forbidden. A shareholder shall not sell his vote, or issue a proxy to vote to any person for any sum of money or anything of value, except as authorized in this section and sections 7.11 and 7.12 of this Title.

6. When proxy is irrevocable. A proxy which is entitled "irrevocable proxy" and which states that it is irrevocable, is irrevocable if and as long as it is coupled with an interest sufficient to support an irrevocable power, including when it is held by any of the following or a nominee of any of the following:

- (a) A pledgee;
- (b) A person who has purchased or agreed to purchase the shares;
- (c) A creditor of the corporation who extends or continues credit to the corporation in consideration of the proxy if the proxy states that it was given in consideration of such extension or continuation of credit, the amount thereof, and the name of the person extending or continuing credit;

This paragraph does not affect the duration of a proxy under paragraph 2.

8. Purchaser without knowledge of irrevocable proxy. A proxy may be revoked, notwithstanding a provision making it irrevocable, by a purchaser of shares without knowledge of the existence of the provision unless the existence of the proxy and its irrevocability is noted conspicuously on the face or back of the certificate representing such shares.”.

This right, when exercised, shall be termed cumulative voting.

3. Action other than election of directors. Whenever any corporate action, other than the election of directors, is to be taken under this Act by vote of the shareholders, it shall, except as otherwise required or permitted by this Act or by the

This provision shall not be deemed to invalidate any irrevocable proxy which is otherwise not illegal.

7. Shares in the name of another corporation. Shares standing in the name of another domestic or foreign corporation of any type or kind may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may provide, or, in the absence of such provision, as the board of such corporation may determine.

8. Limitations on right to vote. The articles of incorporation, except as limited by section 5.1, may provide, either absolutely or conditionally, that the holder of any designated class or series of shares shall not be entitled to vote, or it may otherwise limit or define the respective voting powers of the several classes or series of shares, and, except as otherwise provided in this Act, such provisions of such articles shall prevail, according to their tenor, in all elections and in all proceedings, over the provisions of this Act which authorize any action by the shareholders.”.

If the surviving or consolidated association is to be governed by the laws of any jurisdiction other than Liberia, the effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of merger or consolidation of Liberian corporations with associations organized or registered in Liberia except insofar as the laws of such other jurisdiction provide otherwise.

9. Effective date. The effective date of a merger or consolidation in cases where the surviving or consolidated association is to be governed by the laws of any jurisdiction other than Liberia shall be determined by the filing requirements and laws of such other jurisdiction.

§10.5K. Application of Chapter to Hybrid Corporations.

1. Application to hybrid of provisions in respect of corporation authorized to issue shares. Where in this Chapter there is provision for merger or consolidation in respect of a corporation authorized to issue shares, whether the corporation is a constituent, surviving or consolidated corporation, the provision shall apply to a hybrid corporation with the modification that the provisions of this Chapter in respect of merger and consolidation applicable to a non-share corporation shall apply to members and membership interests in that hybrid corporation.

2. Application to hybrid of provisions in respect of non-share corporation. Where in this Chapter there is provision for merger or consolidation in respect of a non-share corporation, whether the corporation is a constituent, surviving or consolidated corporation, the provision shall apply to a hybrid corporation with the modification that the provisions of this Chapter in respect of merger and consolidation applicable to a corporation authorized to issue shares shall apply to shareholders and shares in that hybrid corporation.

§10.6. Sale, Lease, Exchange or other Disposition of Assets.

1. Method of authorizing. A sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all or substantially all the assets of a corporation, if not made in the usual or regular course of the business actually conducted by such corporation, shall be authorized only in accordance with the following procedure:

- (a) The board shall approve the proposed sale, lease, exchange or other disposition and direct its submission to a vote of the shareholders;
- (b) Notice of meeting shall be given to each shareholder of record, whether or not entitled to vote;
- (c) At such meeting the shareholders may authorize such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition and may fix or may authorize the board to fix any or all terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by the corporation therefor. Such authorization shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the corporation entitled to vote thereon unless any class of shares is entitled to vote thereon as a class, in which event such authorization shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

2. Mortgage or pledge of corporate property. The board may authorize any mortgage or pledge of, or the creation of a security interest in, all or any part of the corporate property, or any interest therein, wherever situated. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, no vote or consent of shareholders shall be required to authorize such action by the board.

§10.7. Right of Dissenting Shareholder to Receive Payment for Shares.

Any shareholder of a corporation shall have the right to dissent from any of the following corporate actions and receive payment of the fair value of his shares:

- (a) Any plan of merger or consolidation to which the corporation is a party;

- (b) Any sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation not made in the usual and regular course of its business, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to an order of a court having jurisdiction in the premises or a sale for cash on terms requiring that all or substantially all the net proceeds of sale be distributed to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests within one year after the date of sale; or
- (c) Any redomiciliation or de-registration and reregistration as another entity.

§10.8. Procedure to Enforce Shareholder's Right to Receive Payment for Shares.

1. Objection by shareholder to proposed corporate action. A shareholder intending to enforce his rights under section 9.7 or 10.7 to receive payment for his shares if the proposed corporate action referred to therein is taken shall file with the corporation, before the meeting of shareholders at which the action is submitted to a vote, or at such meeting but before the vote, written objection to the action. The objection shall include a statement that he intends to demand payment for his shares if the action is taken. Such objection is not required from any shareholder to whom the corporation did not give notice of such meeting in accordance with this Act or where the proposed action is authorized by written consent of the shareholders without a meeting.

2. Notice by corporation to shareholders of authorized action. Within twenty days after the shareholders' authorization date, which term as used in this section means the date on which the shareholders' vote authorizing such action was taken, or the date on which such consent without a meeting was obtained from the requisite shareholders, the corporation shall give written notice of such authorization or consent by registered mail to each shareholder who filed written objection or from whom written objection was not required, excepting any who voted for or consented in writing to the proposed action.

3. Notice by shareholder of election to dissent. Within twenty days after the giving of notice to him, any shareholder to whom the corporation was required to give such notice and who elects to dissent shall file with the corporation a written notice of such election, stating his name and residence address, the number and classes of shares as to which he dissents, and a demand for payment of the fair value of his shares. Any shareholder who elects to dissent from a merger under section 10.3 shall file a written notice of such election to dissent within twenty days after the giving to him of a copy of the plan of merger or an outline of the material features thereof under section 10.3.

4. Dissent as to fewer than all shares. A shareholder may not dissent as to fewer than all the shares, held by him of record, that he owns beneficially. A nominee or fiduciary may not dissent on behalf of any beneficial owner as to fewer than all the shares of such owner held of record by such nominee or fiduciary.

5. Effect of filing notice of election to dissent. Upon filing a notice of election to dissent, the shareholder shall cease to have any of the rights of a shareholder except the right to be paid the fair value of his shares.

6. Offer by corporation or other surviving or consolidated entity, or by re-domiciled corporation or reregistered entity to dissenting shareholder to pay for shares. Within seven days after the expiration of the period within which shareholders may file their notices of election to dissent, or within seven days after the proposed corporate action is consummated, whichever is later, the corporation or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving or consolidated corporation or other entity, or in the case of re-domiciliation, the re-domiciled corporation or in the case of de-registration the reregistered entity shall make a written offer by registered mail to each shareholder who has filed such notice of election to pay for his shares at a specified price which the offering entity considers to be their fair value. If within thirty days after the making of such offer, the offering entity and any shareholder agree upon the price to be paid for his shares, payment therefor shall be made within thirty days after the making of such offer upon the surrender of the certificates representing such shares.

7. Procedure on failure of corporation or other entity to pay dissenting shareholder. The following procedures shall apply if the corporation or other entity fails to make such offer within such period of seven days, or if it makes the offer and any dissenting shareholder fails to agree with it within the period of thirty days thereafter upon the price to be paid for shares owned by such shareholder:

- (a) The corporation or other entity shall, within twenty days after the expiration of whichever is applicable of the two periods last mentioned, institute a special proceeding in the circuit court in the judicial circuit in Liberia in which the office of the corporation or other entity is located to determine the rights of dissenting shareholders and to fix the fair value of their shares. If, in the case of merger, consolidation, redomiciliation or reregistration, the offering entity is a foreign entity without an office in Liberia, such proceeding shall be brought in the country where the office of the domestic corporation, whose shares are to be valued, was located;
- (b) If the corporation or other entity fails to institute such proceedings within such period of twenty days, any dissenting shareholder may institute such proceeding for the same purpose not later than thirty days after the expiration of such twenty-day period. If such proceeding is not instituted within such thirty-day period, all dissenter's rights shall be lost unless the circuit court, for good cause shown, shall otherwise direct;

- (c) All dissenting shareholders, excepting those who, as provided in paragraph 6, have agreed with the corporation or other entity upon the price to be paid for their shares, shall be made parties to such proceeding, which shall have the effect of an action quasi in rem against their shares. The corporation or other entity shall serve a copy of the petition in such proceeding upon each dissenting shareholder in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons;
- (d) The court shall determine whether each dissenting shareholder, as to whom the corporation or other entity requests the court to make such a determination, is entitled to receive payment for his shares. If the corporation or other entity does not request any such determination or if the court finds that any dissenting shareholder is so entitled, it shall proceed to fix the value of the shares, which, for the purposes of this section, shall be the fair value as of the close of business on the day prior to the shareholder's authorization date, excluding any appreciation or depreciation directly or indirectly induced by such corporate action or its proposal. The court may, if it so elects, appoint an appraiser to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value;
- (e) The final order in the proceeding shall be entered against the corporation or other entity in favor of each dissenting shareholder who is a party to the proceeding and is entitled thereto for the value of his shares so determined. Within sixty days after the final determination of the proceeding, the corporation or other entity shall pay to each dissenting shareholder the amount found to be due him, upon surrender of the certificates representing his shares.

8. Disposition of shares acquired by the corporation or other entity. Shares acquired by the corporation or other entity upon the payment of the agreed value therefor or of the amount due under the final order, as provided in this section, shall become treasury shares or be cancelled except that, in the case of a merger, consolidation or reregistration, they may be held and disposed of as the plan of merger, consolidation or de-registration and reregistration may otherwise provide.

9. Right to receive payment by dissenting shareholder as exclusive. The enforcement by a shareholder of his right to receive payment for his shares in the manner provided herein shall exclude the enforcement by such shareholder of any right to which he might otherwise be entitled by virtue of share ownership, except that this section shall not exclude the right of such shareholder to bring or maintain an appropriate action to obtain relief on the ground that such corporate action will be or is illegal or fraudulent as to such shareholder.

10. Application to non-share corporations. The provisions of this section shall apply mutatis mutandis to non-share corporations with the substitution of members and membership interests for shareholders and shares.

§10.9. Power of Corporation to Re-domicile into Liberia.

A meeting under this section may not be called more often than once in any period of twelve consecutive months. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, the holders of one-half of all outstanding shares of a corporation entitled to vote in an election of directors may adopt at the meeting a resolution and institute a special proceeding in Liberia for dissolution on one or more of the following grounds:

Such petition shall have attached thereto a copy of the proposed plan of discontinuance and distribution and a certificate stating that copies of such petition and plan have been transmitted in writing to the other shareholder and to the directors and officers of such corporation. The petition and certificate shall be executed and acknowledged in accordance with section 1.4. Unless both shareholders file with the court:

- (a) Within three months of the date of the filing of such petition, a certificate similarly executed and acknowledged stating that they have agreed on such plan, or a modification thereof; and
- (b) Within one year from the date of the filing of such petition, a certificate similarly executed and acknowledged stating that the distribution provided by such plan had been completed, the court may dissolve such corporation and may by appointment of one or more trustees or receivers with all the powers and title of a trustee or receiver appointed under section 11.4.3, administer and wind up its affairs. Either or both of the above periods may be extended by agreement of the shareholders, evidenced by a certificate similarly executed, acknowledged and filed with the court prior to the expiration of such period.”.

On the expiration of the ninety-day period, the Registrar or the Deputy Registrar, in the event the corporation has not remedied its default, shall issue a proclamation declaring that the articles of incorporation have been revoked and the corporation dissolved as of the date stated in the proclamation. The proclamation of the Minister of Foreign Affairs shall be filed in his office and he shall mark on the record of the articles of incorporation of the corporation named in the proclamation the date of revocation and dissolution, and he shall give notice thereof to the last recorded registered agent. Thereupon the affairs of the corporation shall be wound up in accordance with the procedure provided in this Chapter.

3. Rescission of dissolution. Whenever the articles of a corporation have been revoked and the corporation dissolved pursuant to this section, the corporation may request the Minister to reinstate the corporation. After being satisfied that all arrears of statutory fees have been paid, that the corporation has retained a registered agent and that fees in respect of the period from the date of dissolution to the date on which rescission is to take place have been paid to the former registered agent, the corporation may be restored to full existence.”.

“1. Notice to creditors. Any time within one year after dissolution, a domestic corporation shall give notice requiring all creditors and claimants, including any with unliquidated or contingent claims and any with whom the corporation has unfulfilled contracts, to present their claims in writing and in detail at a specified place and by a specified day, which shall not be less than six months after the first publication of such notice. Such notice shall be published at least once a week for four successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the office of the corporation was located at the date of dissolution, or if none exists, in a newspaper of general circulation in Liberia or elsewhere in a location in which the corporation regularly conducted its business. On or before the date of the first publication of such notice, the corporation shall mail a copy thereof, postage prepaid and addressed to his last known address, to each person believed to be a creditor of or claimant against the corporation whose name and address are known to or can with due diligence be ascertained by the corporation. The giving of such notice shall not constitute a recognition that any person is a proper creditor or claimant, and shall not revive or make valid or operate as a recognition of the validity of, or a waiver of any defense or counter claim in respect of any claim against the corporation, its assets, directors, officers or shareholders, which has been barred by any statute of limitations or become invalid by any cause, or in respect of which the corporation, its directors, officers or shareholders, have any defense or counterclaim.

2. Filing or barring claim. Any claims which shall have been filed as provided in such notice and which shall be disputed by the corporation may be submitted for determination to the circuit court. Any person whose claim is, at the date of the first publication of such notice, barred by any statute of limitations is not a creditor or claimant entitled to any notice under this section. The claim of any such person and all other claims which are not timely filed as provided in such notice except claims which are the subject of litigation on the date of the first publication of such notice, and all claims which are so filed but are disallowed by the court, shall be forever barred as against the corporation, its assets, directors, officers and shareholders, except to such extent, if any, as the court may allow them against any remaining assets of the corporation in the case of a creditor who shows satisfactory reason for his failure to file his claim as so provided. Any claim not so barred may be reviewed by the court to determine the amount and form of security sufficient to compensate claimants.

3. Claims by Government. Notwithstanding this section, tax claims and other claims by the Government shall not be required to be filed under those sections, and such claims shall not be barred because not so filed, and distribution of the assets of the corporation, or any part thereof, may be deferred until determination of any such claims.”.

§14.3.2. Classes and Voting.

1. Provision for classes and groups. A limited liability company agreement may provide for classes or groups of members having such relative rights, powers and duties as the limited liability company agreement may provide and may make provision for the future creation in the manner provided in the limited liability company agreement of additional classes or groups of classes or groups of members having such relative rights, powers and duties as may from time to time be established, including rights, powers and duties senior to existing classes and groups of members. A limited liability company agreement may provide for the taking of an action, including the amendment of the limited liability company agreement, without the vote or approval of any member or class or group of members, including an action to create under the provisions of the limited liability company agreement a class or group of limited liability company interests that was not previously outstanding.

could damage the limited liability company or its business, or which the limited liability company is required by law or by agreement with a third party to keep confidential.

4. Demand shall be in writing. Any demand by a member under this section shall be in writing and shall state the purpose of such demand.

§14.4.2. Management of Limited Liability Company.

Unless otherwise provided in a limited liability company agreement, the management of a limited liability company shall be vested in its members, in proportion to the then current percentage of the interest of each member in the profits of that limited liability company, and the members having more than 50 percent of the interest shall have a controlling power:

Provided, however, that if a limited liability company agreement provides for the management, in whole or in part, of the limited liability company by a manager, the management of the limited liability company, to the extent so provided, shall be vested in the manager, who shall:

- (a) Be chosen by the members in the manner provided in the limited liability company agreement;
- (b) Hold the offices and have the responsibilities accorded to him by the members and set forth in the limited liability company agreement; and
- (c) Upon resignation cease to be a manager, as provided in a limited liability company agreement.

§14.4.3. Contributions by a Manager.

A manager of a limited liability company may make contributions to the limited liability company and share in the profits and losses of, and in distributions from, the limited liability company as a member. A person who is both a manager and a member has the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a manager and, except as provided in a limited liability company agreement, also has the rights and powers, and, to the extent of participating in the limited liability company as a member, is subject to the restrictions and liabilities of a member.

§14.4.4. Classes and Voting.

I. Provision for classes and groups. A limited liability company agreement may provide for:

- (a) Classes or groups of managers having such relative rights, powers and duties as the limited liability company agreement may provide;
- (b) The future creation in the manner provided in the limited liability company agreement of additional classes or groups of managers having such relative rights, powers and duties senior to existing classes and groups of managers;
- (c) The taking of an action, including:

 - (ii) An action to create under the provisions of the limited liability company agreement a class or group of limited liability company interests that was not previously outstanding, without the vote or approval of any manager or class or group of managers.

2. Voting rights. A limited liability company agreement may grant to all or certain identified managers, or a specified class or group of the managers, the right to vote, separately or with all or any class or group of managers or members, on any matter and voting by managers may be on a per capita, member, financial interest, class, group or any other basis.

3. Provisions in respect of voting rights. A limited liability company agreement which grants a right to vote may set forth provisions relating to:

- (a) Notice of the time, place or purpose of any meeting at which any matter is to be voted on by any manager, or class or group of managers;
- (b) Waiver of any such notice;
- (c) Action by consent without a meeting;
- (d) The establishment of a record date;
- (e) Quorum requirements;
- (f) Voting in person or by proxy; or
- (g) Any other matter with respect to the exercise of any such right to vote.

§14.4.5. Remedies for Breach of Limited Liability Company Agreement by a Manager.

A limited liability company agreement may provide that a manager:

- (a) Who fails to perform in accordance with, or to comply with the terms and conditions of, the limited liability company agreement; or
- (b) At the time or upon the happening of events specified in the limited liability company agreement, shall be subject to specified penalties or specified consequences.

A member or manager of a limited liability company shall be fully protected in relying in good faith upon:

- (a) The records of the limited liability company;
- (b) Such information, opinions, reports or statements (including information, opinions, reports or statements as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities, profits or losses of the limited liability company or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of assets from which distributions to members might properly be paid) presented to the limited liability company by:
 - (i) Any of its other managers, members, officers, employees;
 - (ii) Committees of the limited liability company; or
 - (iii) Any other person, as to matters the member or manager reasonably believes are within such person's professional or expert competence and where that person has been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the limited liability company.

§14.4.7. Delegation of Rights and Powers to Manage.

Unless otherwise provided in the limited liability company agreement, a member or manager of a limited liability company has the power and authority to delegate to one or more other persons the member's or manager's, as the case may be, rights and powers to manage and control the business and affairs of the limited liability company, including to delegate to agents and employees of a member or manager or the limited liability company, and to delegate by a management agreement or another agreement with, or otherwise to, any other person. Unless otherwise provided in the limited liability company agreement, such delegation by a member or manager of a limited liability company shall not cause the member or manager to cease to be a member or manager, as the case may be, of the limited liability company.

SUBCHAPTER V. FINANCE.

§14.5.1. Form of Contribution.

The contribution of a member of a limited liability company may be in cash, property or services rendered, or a promissory note or other obligation to contribute cash or property or to perform services.

§14.5.2. Liability for Contribution.

1. Obligation to contribute. Except as provided in a limited liability company agreement, a member is obligated to a limited liability company to perform any promise to contribute cash or property or to perform services, even if he is unable to perform because of death, disability or any other reason. If a member does not make the required contribution of property or services, he is obligated, at the option of the limited liability company, to contribute cash equal to that portion of the agreed value (as stated in the records of the limited liability company) of the contribution that has not been made. The foregoing option shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights, including the right to specific performance, that the limited liability company may have against such member under the limited liability company agreement or applicable law.

2. Compromise of obligation. Unless otherwise provided in a limited liability company agreement, the obligation of a member to make a contribution, or return money or other property paid or distributed in violation of this Chapter, may be compromised only by consent of all the members. Notwithstanding the compromise, a creditor of a limited liability company who extends credit, after the entering into of a limited liability company agreement, or any amendment thereto, which, in either case, reflects the obligation, and before the amendment thereof to reflect the compromise, may enforce the original obligation to the extent that, in extending credit, the creditor reasonably relied on the obligation of a member to make a contribution or return. A conditional obligation of a member to make a contribution, or return money or other property to a limited liability company, may not be enforced unless the conditions of the obligation have been satisfied or waived as to or by such member. Conditional obligations include contributions payable upon a discretionary call of a limited liability company prior to the time the call occurs.

3. Penalties. A limited liability company agreement may provide that the interest of any member who fails to make any contribution that he is obligated to make shall be subject to specified penalties for, or specified consequences of, such failure. Such penalty or consequence may take the form of reducing or eliminating the defaulting member's proportionate interest to that of non-defaulting members, a forced sale of his limited liability company interest, forfeiture of his limited liability company interest, the lending by other members of the amount necessary to meet his commitment, a fixing of the value of his limited liability company interest by appraisal or by formula and redemption or sale of his limited liability company interest at such value, or other penalty or consequence.

§14.5.3. Allocation of Profits and Losses.

The profits and losses of a limited liability company shall be allocated among the members, and among classes or groups of members, in the manner provided in a limited liability company agreement. If the limited liability company agreement does not so provide, profits and losses shall be allocated on the basis of the agreed value (as stated in the records of the limited liability company) of the contributions made by each member to the extent they have been received by the limited liability company and have not been returned.

§14.5.4. Allocations of Distributions.

Distributions of cash or other assets of a limited liability company shall be allocated among the members, and among classes or groups of members, in the manner provided in a limited liability company agreement. If the limited liability company agreement does not so provide, distributions shall be made on the basis of the agreed value (as stated in the records of the limited liability company) of the contributions made by each member to the extent they have been received by the limited liability company and have not been returned.

SUBCHAPTER VI. DISTRIBUTIONS AND RESIGNATION.

§14.6.1. Interim Distribution.

Except as provided in this Subchapter, to the extent and at the times or upon the happening of the events specified in a limited liability company agreement, a member is entitled to receive from a limited liability company contributions before his resignation from the limited liability company, and before the dissolution and winding up thereof.

§14.6.2. Resignation of Manager.

A manager may resign as a manager of a limited liability company at the time or upon the happening of events specified in the limited liability company agreement and in accordance with that agreement. A limited liability company agreement may provide that a manager shall not have the right to resign as a manager of a limited liability company. Notwithstanding that a limited liability company agreement provides that a manager does not have the right to resign he may resign at any time by giving written notice to the members and other managers. If the resignation of a manager violates the limited liability company agreement, in addition to any remedies otherwise available under applicable law, a limited liability company may recover from the resigning manager damages for breach of the agreement and offset the damages against the amount otherwise distributable to the resigning manager.

§14.6.3. Resignation of Member.

A member may resign from a limited liability company at the time or upon the happening of events specified in the limited liability company agreement and in accordance with that agreement. If a limited liability company agreement does not specify the time or the events upon the happening of which a member may resign, or a definite time for the dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company, a member may resign upon not less than 6 months' prior written notice to the limited liability company at its registered office and to each member and manager at each member's and manager's address in the records of the limited liability company. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Chapter, a limited liability company agreement may provide that a member may not resign from a limited liability company, or assign his limited liability company interest, prior to the dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company.

§14.6.4. Distribution upon Resignation.

Except as provided in this Subchapter, upon resignation any resigning member is entitled to receive any distribution to which he is entitled under a limited liability company agreement and, if not otherwise provided in a limited liability company agreement, he is entitled to receive, within a reasonable time after resignation, the fair value of his limited liability company interest as of the date of resignation based upon his right to share in distributions from the limited liability company.

§14.6.5. Distribution in Kind.

Except as provided in a limited liability company agreement, a member, regardless of the nature of his contribution, has no right to demand and receive any distribution from a limited liability company in any form other than cash. Except as provided in a limited liability company agreement, a member may not be compelled to accept a distribution of any asset in kind from a limited liability company to the extent that the percentage of the asset distributed to him exceeds a percentage of that asset which is equal to the percentage in which he shares in distributions from the limited liability company.

§14.6.6. Right to Distribution.

Subject to sections 14.6.7 and 14.8.4, and unless otherwise provided in a limited liability company agreement, at the time a member becomes entitled to receive a distribution, he has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of a limited liability company with respect to the distribution. A limited liability company agreement may provide for the establishment of a record date with respect to allocations and distributions by a limited liability company.

§14.6.7. Limitations on Distribution.

1. Restrictions. A limited liability company shall not make a distribution to a member to the extent that, at the time of the distribution, and after giving effect to the distribution, all liabilities of the limited liability company, other than:

- (a) Liabilities to members on account of their limited liability company interests; and
- (b) Liabilities for which the recourse of creditors is limited to specified property of the limited liability company, exceed the fair value of the assets of the limited liability company, and for the purpose of this paragraph the fair value of property that is subject to a liability for which the recourse of creditors is limited shall be included in the assets of the limited liability company only to the extent that the fair value of that property exceeds that liability.

2. Member's liability. A member who receives a distribution in violation of paragraph (1) of this section and who:

- (a) Knew at the time of the distribution that the distribution violated that paragraph, shall be liable to a limited liability company for the amount of the distribution.
- (b) Did not know at the time of the distribution that the distribution violated that paragraph, shall not be liable for the amount of the distribution, and, subject to paragraph (3), this paragraph shall not affect any obligation or liability of a member under a limited liability company agreement or other applicable law for the amount of a distribution.

3. Expiration of liability. Unless otherwise agreed, a member who receives a distribution from a limited liability company shall have no liability under this Chapter or other applicable law for the amount of the distribution after the expiration of three years from the date of the distribution, unless an action to recover the distribution from such member is commenced prior to the expiration of the said three year period and an adjudication of liability against such member is made in the said action.

SUBCHAPTER VII. ASSIGNMENT OF LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY INTERESTS.

§14.7.1. Nature of Limited Liability Company Interest.

A limited liability company interest is personal property. A member has no interest in specific property of the limited liability company.

§14.7.2. Assignment of Limited Liability Company Interest.

1. Power to assign. A limited liability company interest is assignable in whole or in part except as provided in the limited liability company agreement. An assignment of a limited liability company interest does not entitle the assignee to become or to exercise any rights or powers of a member. The assignee of a member's limited liability company interest shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of a limited liability company except as provided in a limited liability company agreement and upon:

- (a) The approval of all of the members of the limited liability company other than the member assigning his limited liability company interest; or
- (b) Compliance with any procedure provided for in the limited liability company agreement.

2. Effect of assignment. Unless otherwise provided in a limited liability company agreement:

- (a) An assignment entitles the assignee to share in such profits and losses, to receive such distribution or distributions, and to receive such allocation of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit or similar item to which the assignor was entitled, to the extent assigned; and
- (b) A member ceases to be a member and to have the power to exercise any rights or powers of a member upon assignment of all of his limited liability company interest. Unless otherwise provided in a limited liability company agreement, the pledge of, or granting of a security interest, lien or other encumbrance in or against, any or all of the limited liability company interest of a member shall not cause the member to cease to be a member or to have the power to exercise any rights or powers of a member.

3. Certificate of member's interest. A limited liability company agreement may provide that a certificate of limited liability company interest issued by the limited liability company may evidence a member's interest in a limited liability company.

4. Assignee's liability. Unless otherwise provided in a limited liability company agreement, and except to the extent assumed by agreement, until an assignee of a limited liability company interest becomes a member, the assignee shall have no liability as a member solely as result of the assignment.

§14.7.3. Rights of Judgment Creditor.

On application in a court of competent jurisdiction by any judgment creditor of a member, the court may charge the limited liability company interest of the member with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment with interest. To the extent so charged, the judgment creditor has only the rights of an assignee of the limited liability company interest. This Chapter does not deprive any member of the benefit of any exemption laws applicable to his limited liability company interest.

§14.7.4. Right of Assignee to become Member.

1. Assignees to be member. An assignee of a limited liability company interest may become a member as provided in a limited liability company agreement and upon:

- (a) The approval of all of the members of the limited liability company other than the member assigning his limited liability company interest; or
- (b) Compliance with any procedure provided for in the limited liability company agreement.

2. Rights and obligations. An assignee who has become a member has, to the extent assigned, the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a member under a limited liability company agreement and this Chapter. Notwithstanding the foregoing, unless otherwise provided in a limited liability company agreement, an assignee who becomes a member is liable for the obligations of his assignor to make contributions as provided in section 14.5.2, but shall not be liable for the obligations of his assignor under Subchapter VI. However, the assignee is not obligated for liabilities, including the obligations of his assignor to make contributions as provided in section 14.5, unknown to the assignee at the time he became a member and which could not be ascertained from a limited liability company agreement.

3. No release of assignor from liabilities. Whether or not an assignee of a limited liability company interest becomes a member, the assignor is not released from his liability to a limited liability company under Subchapters V and VI of this Chapter.

§14.7.5. Powers of Estate of Deceased or Incompetent Member.

If a member who is an individual dies or a court of competent jurisdiction adjudges him to be incompetent to manage his person or his property, the member's executor, administrator, guardian, conservator or other legal representative may exercise all of the member's rights for the purpose of settling his estate or administering his property, including any power under a limited liability company agreement of an assignee to become a member. If a member is a corporation, trust or other entity and is dissolved or terminated, the powers of that member may be exercised by its legal representative or successor.

SUBCHAPTER VIII. DISSOLUTION.

§14.8.1. Dissolution.

1. Occurrence of dissolution. A limited liability company is dissolved, and its affairs shall be wound up upon the first to occur of the following:

- (a) The time specified in a limited liability company agreement, or, if no such time is set forth in the limited liability company agreement, 30 years from the date of the formation of the limited liability company;
- (b) Upon the happening of events specified in the limited liability company agreement;
- (c) The written consent of all members;
- (d) The death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a member, or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company, unless the business of the limited liability company is continued either:
 - (i) By the consent of all the remaining members given within 90 days following the occurrence of any such event; or
 - (ii) Pursuant to a right to continue stated in the limited liability company agreement; or
- (e) The entry of a decree of judicial dissolution under section 14.8.3.

2. Filing of certificate. Upon dissolution, a certificate of cancellation shall be filed in accordance with section 14.2.3.

§14.8.2. Involuntary Dissolution.

1. Dissolution on failure to comply. On failure of a limited liability company to pay the annual registration fee or to maintain a registered agent for a period of one year, the Registrar or the Deputy Registrar shall cause a notification to be sent to the limited liability company through its last recorded registered agent that its certificate of formation will be revoked unless within ninety days of the date of the notice, payment of the annual registration fee has been received or a registered agent has been reappointed, as the case may be. On the expiration of the ninety-day period, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, in the event the limited liability company has not remedied its default, shall issue a proclamation declaring that the certificate of formation of the limited liability company has been revoked and the limited liability company dissolved as of the date stated in the proclamation. The proclamation of the Minister of Foreign Affairs shall be filed in his office and he shall mark on the record of the certificate of formation of the limited liability company named in the proclamation the date of revocation and dissolution, and he shall give notice thereof to the last recorded registered agent. Thereupon the affairs of the limited liability company shall be wound up in accordance with the procedure provided in this Chapter.

2. Erroneous annulment. Whenever it is established to the satisfaction of the Minister of Foreign Affairs that the certificate of formation was erroneously revoked, he may restore the limited liability company to full existence by publishing and filing in his office a proclamation to that effect.

3. Petition to reinstate. Whenever the certificate of formation of a limited liability company has been revoked and the limited liability company dissolved pursuant to this section, the limited liability company may request the Minister to reinstate the limited liability company. After being satisfied that all arrears of statutory fees have been paid, that the limited liability company has retained a registered agent and that fees in respect of the period from the date of dissolution to the date on which rescission is to take place have been paid to the former registered agent, the limited liability company may be restored to full existence.

§14.8.3. Judicial Dissolution.

On application by or for a member or manager the circuit court may decree dissolution of a limited liability company whenever it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the business in conformity with a limited liability company agreement.

§14.8.4. Winding up.

1. Procedure for winding up. Unless otherwise provided in a limited liability company agreement, a manager who has not wrongfully dissolved a limited liability company or, if none, the members or a person approved by the members or, if there is more than one class or group of members, then by each class or group of members, in either case, by members who own more than 50 percent of the then current percentage or other interest in the profits of the limited liability company owned by all of the members or by the members in each class or group, as appropriate, may wind up the limited liability company's affairs; but the circuit court, upon cause shown, may wind up the limited liability company's affairs upon application of any member or manager, his legal representative or assignee, and in connection therewith, may appoint a liquidating trustee.

2. Continuation after cancellation. Upon dissolution of a limited liability company and until the filing of a certificate of cancellation as provided in section 14.2.3, the persons winding up the limited liability company's affairs may, in the name of, and for and on behalf of, the limited liability company, prosecute and defend suits, whether civil, criminal or administrative, gradually settle and close the limited liability company's business, dispose of and convey the limited liability company's property, discharge or make reasonable provision for the limited liability company's liabilities, and distribute to the members any remaining assets of the limited liability company, all without affecting the liability of members and managers and without imposing liability on a liquidating trustee.

§14.8.5. Distribution of Assets.

1. Priority in distribution. Upon the winding up of a limited liability company, the assets shall be distributed as follows:

- (a) To creditors, including members and managers who are creditors, to the extent otherwise permitted by law, in satisfaction of liabilities of the limited liability company (whether by payment or the making of reasonable provision for payment thereof) other than liabilities for which reasonable provision for payment has been made and liabilities for distributions to members under section 14.6.1 or section 14.6.4;
- (b) Unless otherwise provided in a limited liability company agreement, to members and former members in satisfaction of liabilities for distributions under section 14.6.1 or section 14.6.4; and
- (c) Unless otherwise provided in a limited liability company agreement, to members first for the return of their contributions and second respecting their limited liability company interests, in the proportions in which the members share in distributions.

2. Obligation to pay creditors, etc.. A limited liability company which has dissolved shall pay or make reasonable provision to pay all claims and obligations, including all contingent, conditional or unmatured claims and obligations, known to the limited liability company and all claims and obligations which are known to the limited liability company but for which the identity of the claimant is unknown. If there are sufficient assets, such claims and obligations shall be paid in full and any such provision for payment made shall be made in full. If there are insufficient assets, such claims and obligations shall be paid or provided for according to their priority and, among claims and obligations of equal priority, ratably to the extent of assets available therefor. Unless otherwise provided in a limited liability company agreement, any remaining assets shall be distributed as provided in this Chapter. Any Liquidating Trustee winding up a limited liability company's affairs who has complied with this section shall not be personally liable to the claimants of the dissolved limited liability company by reason of such person's actions in winding up the limited liability company.

SUBCHAPTER IX. DERIVATIVE ACTIONS.

§14.9.1. Right to bring Action.

A member may bring an action in the circuit court in the right of a limited liability company to recover a judgment in its favor if managers or members with authority to do so have refused to bring the action or if an effort to cause those managers or members to bring the action is not likely to succeed.

§14.9.2. Proper Plaintiff.

In a derivative action, the plaintiff must be a member at the time of bringing the action and:

- (a) At the time of the transaction of which he complains; or
